Community Renewal Team Appoints Neil Orrill as V.P. of Finance and Administration

Glastonbury resident has years of consultant experience; Christopher McCluskey of Seymour is promoted HARTFORD—Neil Orrill of Glastonbury has been named Vice President of Finance and Administration of the Community Renewal Team, a human services organization that addresses the multi-faceted needs of more than 130,000 people in Central Connecticut. He will oversee many of the agency's operational departments including Finance, Information Technology, Development and Facilities Management. Orrill joins CRT after working as a consultant to a number of industries, including healthcare, senior living, and construction. He has also overseen a variety of healthcare-related organizations involved in nursing and assisted living care.

At the same time, Christopher McCluskey of Seymour has been promoted to the position of Vice President of Housing and Community Services. He will oversee all of the agency's Housing and Shelters; Community Resource Centers and Money Management; Energy Assistance; Employment & Training; and Veterans Initiatives. McCluskey has moved up through increasingly responsible positions at CRT since 1996. He has recently been supervising day and residential programs, including transitional housing for homeless veterans.

CRT is a community action agency that prepares people of all ages to take steps toward a healthy and economically stable future. CRT offers a diverse network of programs and services to residents of 75 cities and towns throughout Central Connecticut. For more information, please see the agency website at www.crtct.org
