Big 3 Gourmet Dinner a Tempting Feast!

Windsor fundraiser benefits CRT Food Pantry

Three of the area's top chefs will show off their finest cooking on February 22, while benefitting the Community Renewal Team's Food Pantry. For just $30 per person, diners will enjoy a menu that starts with Blue Crab and Butternut Squash Bisque and ends with Raspberry Swirl Cheesecake Cupcakes. In between you'll find Bacon-wrapped Pork Loin, Boneless Curry Chicken and more than a dozen other dishes.

The event will be held on Sunday February 22, 4-7 pm at the Whistle Stop Café, 139 Broad St., Windsor. In addition to a ticket, each guest is required to bring a non-perishable food item, winter coat, gloves or hat – all to be distributed to area residents by CRT. The entire evening is organized by Chef Jay Lewis, author of "The Gentleman's Cookbook."

"This has always been my dream ... to own a business and use my resources to help people," Lewis says. Other participating chefs are Garfield Trout and Alfred Williams.
